HW Assignment Question 1

1. Joseph blamed Benjamin for a fictional theft toward the end of the chapters we had to read, and accepted Benjamin as a slave in return. As Joseph ordered his brother to return home without Benjamin, Judah spoke up and offered to take him for Benjamin instead because he kept a promise to his father to bring him home. That was the moment his character change. What caused him to change himself were the bad things he has done in his life. He set out to sell his own brother as a slave, lost his trust with his family by marrying a Canaanite, raised such sinful sons that the lord had killed, and viewed his daughter in law as a prostitute. What I learn from reading about Judah in these chapters is that God will accept you no matter how bad you have sin in life, his arms are always open for you. A biblical character whose personality change due to an event in there live was Peter. Peter was a person who kill Christians until he met God face to face, once that moment happen, he became one of the most powerful people to preach the gospel.
