

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

Week # 1 (43 Hours) TOTAL: 43 Hours

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
4 Hours – Meeting with Mentor 16 Hours – Youth Conference Meetings/Prep 21 Hours – Youth Conference 2 Hours – High School Ministry Meetings	Although I started my internship in August, I am logging from the beginning of the Fall semester (approximately 3 weeks ago). It has been very challenging, but rewarding to work with Jimmy. We were able to hone in on the areas that I wanted to develop, as well as recognize where my strengths were. We hosted the Asian Youth Center’s annual youth conference, Youth Hallelujah, on the 25th and 26th. There were many meetings throughout the week and a lot of contacting and reaching out to the local youth pastors of the region. It was interesting to see many different churches of various denominations come together to help serve the youth of the region. I also started meeting with two other pastors about developing/ launching a high school ministry program in the coming months. While there is very little foundation to work with, along with the fact that many students aren’t attending school in person because of the pandemic, we want to be wise and strategic in creating a way to minister and love on the high school students in the area.

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) TOPICS OF DISCUSSION REFLECTIONS
As I met with my mentor, Jimmy, we discussed what my current goals were, where I saw myself in the future, and how I could participate in, learn from, and lead within the Asian Youth Center and Crystal Church. I am currently serving as a youth pastor at my church, so we agreed to avoid Sundays as much as possible. However, because my focus and area of ministry was currently with the youth, we agreed that it would be most beneficial if we focused on youth ministry. I explained that my interests were for prayer and missions, so we were able to determine some of the areas in which I could get involved. We narrowed down the focus of my internship to organizing a regional youth conference, developing and launching a high school ministry, and partaking in a refugee missions trip to Ohio with a partnering organization.

FIELD EDUCATION
The Log

