

List the types of writing that you enjoy the most and explain why. Please submit this to Dropbox.

I am more interested in descriptive writing. Like writing a journal or diary, it helps me record those special moments. It creates a truly immersive experience when I write it or read it again. I also like writing food reviews. Whatever it's good or bad experience, I will share the food advice with my audiences by describing my impressions via taste.