

Journal Entry 1 - Write about one college custom that is difficult for you. A minimum of three sentences.

Campus culture requires a certain adaptation process for sure. Understanding of the curriculum and working on a career goal has been always difficult for me. Life sometimes directs people to its own way or people may change their minds at the end of their program. It would be the best if we can create a career goal can be both practical and fulfilling.