

Jeanette concepcion

Professor Lucy

Intermediate Writing

4 October 2020

Vocabulary/Sentence week 3

1. Angst means a feeling of deep anxiety or dread.

Sentence: I Angst after looking at my writing e360 assignments.

2. Eclectic means deriving idea, style or taste from a broad and diverse range of sources.

Sentence: Nyack offers an eclectic mix of courses.

3. Levity means humor or frivolity, especially the treatment of a serious matter with humor

Sentence: My friend seems to think yoga is serious business, but i think there is room for levity.

4. Impervious means not capable of being damaged or harmed.

Sentence: I remained impervious to the conversation.

5. Loquacious means tending to talk a great deal.

Sentence: My child is intensely literate and endlessly loquacious.

6. Nefarious means wicked or criminal.

Sentence: My neighbor's son was in a nefarious activity.

7. Nominal means of a (role or status) existing in name only.

Sentence: I had to step out from the babyshower to pick up the balloons, leaving Raquel's best friend with her partner John in nominal charge of the party.

8. Scrupulous means Diligent, extremely attentive to details.

Sentence: I am too scrupulous to have an affair with a married man.

9. Repository means a place where things are or may be stored.

Sentence: My 80 year old grandmother's mind was a rich repository of the past.

10. Ubiquitous means present, appearing or found everywhere.

Sentence: It's impossible not to be influenced by God because he is ubiquitous.

11. Vociferous means marked by or given to vehement insistent outcry.

Sentence: He was a vociferous opponent of the takeover.

