

Wonderful New York City

New York City is a wonderful place to live. First, there is a lot of nature. For example, you can go to Central Park or to the you see the nature view. Next, there is much traffic. For instance, due to the crowded population, the number of private vehicles as much as public transportation is used but not disturbing. Then, there are good places education. For example, you can study at the Nyack College or Lisma School. Finally, it is a safe place to live. For instance, you can walk around any not feel danger. In conclusin, New York City is a great city.