THE DEATH OF MR.LAZARESCU

“We're born alone, we live alone, we die alone. Only through our love and friendship can we create the illusion for the moment that we're not alone.”- Orson Welles. The death of Mr. Lazarescu is a romanian drama film published in 2005. This movie was published in New York, it was directed by Cristi Puiu and produced by Alexandru Munteanu. The purpose of this film was to educate people about the sad and true reality of the health services in Romania. This film is based on a true case in Romania in 1997 about a man named Constantin Nica, a fifty-two year old man who was sent to multiple hospitals and died. In this essay I will give a very small summary about the film. The story is about a human being who dies alone, surrounded by the indifference of the others. I will share my experience and opinion of the film and explain why you should go and watch this movie right now.
