

Leadership Assessment

Student: David Pham

phamd@nyack.edu

Program: Masters of Divinity

Alliance Theological Seminary

Date 11/01/2020

Leadership Assessment

You will take a leadership assessments and Spiritual gifts assessment from “Live Your Calling” as well as two additional leadership assessments from those provided below, and one additional Spiritual gifts assessment provided below. You will evaluate yourself based on these assessments for areas of perceived personal and ministry strengths and weakness.

Summarize of your Leadership Assessment

Do a quick review of each assessment hear, sharing highlights of each. All responses must begin with indentation and be written in double space. As you will notice that both margins are at one inch. The entire document has a running header with page numbers on the right. First headings are centered and bold. Second headers are aligned left and bold. Third headers are left indented and bold. Any time there is an idea or quote taken from a reading source you need to cite it e.g. Source (Date) or (Source, Date). These are the basics of APA. If you have any other questions, please reference your APA book.

What are perceived strengths?

Based on the findings from the assessments, in what areas do you see strengths that you could bring to the function of leadership. All responses must begin with indentation and be written in double space. As you will notice that both margins are at one inch. The entire document has a running header with page numbers on the right. First headings are centered and bold. Second headers are aligned left and bold. Third headers are left indented and bold. Any time there is an idea or quote taken from a reading source you need to cite it e.g. Source (Date) or (Source, Date). These are the basics of APA. If you have any other questions, please reference your APA book.

What are perceived weaknesses?

Based on the findings from the assessments, in what areas do you see perceived weakness that could hinder you in roles of leadership. All responses must begin with indentation and be written in double space. As you will notice that both margins are at one inch. The entire document has a running header with page numbers on the right. First headings are centered and bold. Second headers are aligned left and bold. Third headers are left indented and bold. Any time there is an idea or quote taken from a reading source you need to cite it e.g. Source (Date) or (Source, Date). These are the basics of APA. If you have any other questions, please reference your APA book.

What implications does this assessment have for you leading in a church context?*What needs to change in your life as a result?

References: