

“A SOLEMN COVENANT”

- Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth, let thy name be proclaimed through all the Earth, Let thy power be known through all Generations, let the earth sing you Praises and acknowledge that you are Lord, let your name be known through the ends of the world.

- Father God today I solemn pledge to you that no matter how hard my life is, or how much the enemy might try to tempt me, I will always remember your ways and will never go astray from you , and I know that whenever I turn away from your ways you will be there to guide me and help me take the right path.

- Father God help me to remember that this world is temporary, and help me when I try to not put my desire in earthly things but set my eyes on the eternal price of heaven. Help me to remember that everything will perish but your love is eternal and your grace is sufficient for me.

- You are my provider Lord and let me not wish for great riches, for I know that a rich man cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.

- I promise to be a light to this world lord, help me proclaim that you are the one true living God help me as I prepare myself to be a bearer of your good news.

- Help me as I strengthen my faith in you o lord, and guide me with good wisdom and understanding to keeping your commandments and meditate on it day and night.

- Help me remember to cast my burdens unto you, for you love me more than imagination, help me to remember to rely on you and not on my own human abilities.
