

Journal Entry 3

My desired experience is to learn practical skills that I can use in my college life and in future. I believe we should use knowledge from book in our real life. Good grades are important, but the knowledge is not valuable if we do not use it. I hope what I learn here can help me in my academic life and make my further study easier. I enjoy using knowledge in real life.