Summary

What does the Holy Spirit do inside people?

We tend to misunderstand what the Holy Spirit does. We think that the Holy Spirit does something special by giving people spiritual gifts. However, the most important thing the Holy Spirit does is to make the world realize its sin, as John 16:17-18 says. Also, the Holy Spirit does not only serve to make people realize their sins, but leads them to Jesus Christ.

Those who have been led to Jesus know the salvation of Jesus Christ for them through the Holy Spirit. The role of the Holy Spirit does not end only here. The Holy Spirit works even in regenerated people. Regenerated people refer to those who believed in Jesus and were saved. They can know the deeper grace of Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit and enter the kingdom of God through water and the Holy Spirit.

Professor Walborn says that the Holy Spirit works in people. He says that the essence of a man can be divided into three types. This is the spirit, soul, and body. Spirit controls "God Consciousness," soul controls "Self Consciousness," and finally, the body controls "Sense Consciousness."
