

Primary Source, Chapter 27.3

1. How does this differ from the declaration in Chapter 18? What has been added?

In the Declaration the rights that all people around the world should have are listed and it is more so theoretical. The BOR describes and protects the human rights of all people in this country.

2. What historical events can you detect in the additions and wording of the 20th century document?