

Important choice I made was immigrating to America. I brought all my family members to America in 2003. I came for the American Dream. I made this important choice for the better future of our family.