

Mid-term: Literature Review Paper (6-8 pages) 150 points

| Item being graded   | Possible points | Points earned |
|--|------------------------|----------------------|
| APA Style (cover page, References page accuracy, Running head, in-text citations)  | 10                     |                      |
| Meeting page requirements  | 10                     |                      |
| Paper submitted on time  | 10                     |                      |
| Grammar and spelling accuracy  | 10                     |                      |
| Meets minimum number of references (6)   | 10                     |                      |
| Topic was approved and worthy of further research  | 10                     |                      |
| Sources were appropriate to the topic, salient for future research, published within 8 years                                   | 10                     |                      |
| The student demonstrates synthesis of themes and clusters of knowledge from the sources used and how they relate to each other | 40                     |                      |
| The paper flows logically and cohesively based on the organization of the data into logical themes                             | 40                     |                      |