

Argumentative Essay Assignment

We all have to face difficult and challenging circumstances in life. Some of these circumstances may include loss, tragedy, illness, and other traumatic events. However, there is always hope that we can, in different ways, overcome our difficulties and move forward with our lives.

In an essay of at least 600 words, discuss the idea of resilience in response to ONE of the texts below. In your essay, explain the lessons this particular text of your choice can teach people about overcoming difficulties and holding on to hope (remember that your essay has to follow MLA formatting and citation rules):

1. A book from the Bible
2. The Lord's Prayer
3. Instrument of Your Peace Prayer – St. Francis of Assisi
4. The poem "Still I Rise" by Maya Angelou
5. The poem "See It Through" by Edgar Albert Guest
6. The poem "Invictus" by William Ernest Henley
