

DEV 103 - Foundations of Literature (3 credits)
Final Exam Review

April 28 – May 2, 2021 final exam dates

To be prepared to take your final exam for Foundations of Literature, please re-listen to all lectures and review poetry and literature vocabulary lists. The test will consist of 25 multiple choice questions.

You should also concentrate on my discussions about the authors that we studied this semester. Make sure that you know:

1. Who is the author of each story?
2. What type of writing each is known for, such as science fiction, horror, everyday people?
3. In when years did the author write?

Please review the rhyme schemes in the three poems that we studied.

Here are some terms that you should study for the test:

- onomonapea
- couplet
- free verse
- alliteration
- gothic tale
- simile
- metaphor
- symbolism
- literary device
- figurative language
- imagery
- setting
- theme
