

MENTOR'S MIDWAY FIELD EDUCATION REPORT

4. To what extent is your Intern understanding & practicing the personal, theological and practical components of holistic ministry?

To no extent 1 2 3 4 Completely 5

Please briefly describe which ministry areas you believe to be your Intern's greatest strengths so far:

She desires to continue to learn.

Please briefly describe which ministry areas you believe to be your Intern's most serious weaknesses so far:

Jessica often doubt herself.

5. To what extent are you equipping your Intern to engage in critical thinking and/or relevant, thoughtful and informed dialogue within the internship context?

To no extent 1 2 3 4 Completely 5

6. To what extent are you equipping your Intern to engage in critical thinking and/or relevant, thoughtful and informed dialogue outside of the internship context?

To no extent 1 2 3 4 Completely 5

7. To what extent is your Intern attentive and available each week?

To no extent 1 2 3 4 Completely 5

8. To what extent are you equipping your Intern well so they could succeed?

To no extent 1 2 3 4 Completely 5

Briefly describe the content / context of some of your most fruitful conversations with your Intern so far:

Jessica shares from a place of strength and vulnerability. She is a God sent.

MENTOR'S MIDWAY FIELD EDUCATION REPORT

9. To what extent do you consider your Intern is becoming ready / suitable for further ministry?

To no extent

1

2

3

4

Completely

5

10. What can you be doing to make this Field Ed experience more fruitful or helpful to the development of your Intern's soul, character, skills, etc.?

Continue to develop and encourage her to grow.