

PMN 210. EXAM One

Answer all questions and give page numbers.

1. What is Adam's central thought on persons in counseling?
2. What is the work of the Holy Spirit in counseling?
3. What are the three specified sources on problems in the scripture?
4. Do you think Adams is right when he says there is no place for psychiatry? Explain.
5. What are the two observations Adams is prepared to make?
6. What are the three qualifications of the counselor?
7. Say what you understand by authority of the counselor in the text.
8. What are the three sources of information available to the counselor?
9. What scripture does Adams use to tell us there is a solution to every problem?
10. Explain what it means by counselee's can change.
11. Does this matter of nervous breakdown make sense to you? Explain.
12. Name three of the eleven reasons for hope that stand out to you.