There are 9 services per week in different location and times. Two assistance pastors in charge one service, plus ushers and worship teams. Most of them are below 40 years old, very young and energetic, especially their worship teams, filled with Holy Spirit, leading congregation into truth. Their mission statement: They have one seminary school. Most of their pastors are graduated from that school, they focus on God's words. The past weekend I attended their retreat, lots of pastors from different churches who graduated from this school attended too. During the retreat, they have a section is sharing about their life and ministries, every one shared how God met them in different contexts, and that's so encouraging.
