

Cris Leynes

Professor Amy Davis Abdallah

Introduction to Historical Theology

DEV 102

10/16/21

Paper Proposal

Martin Luther and Reformer Marriage

Martin Luther, who was a German monk, was the most well-known advocates for a reform Christian church. One of his goals was to portray that it is ok for monks and priests to marry. The ambiguity regarding Luther's intent clarified the need to marry and how Christian marriage should be. Luther has been persecuted for standing up for what he believes in, especially as he criticized the Catholic Church. The twenty-first wedding anniversary of Luther and his wife became an arrangement for the era in his generation. He can be described as a middle aged theologian who was known to be argumentative and judgmental.

Provisional Thesis Title

Martin Luther and Reformer Marriage

Name of Supervisor or Advisor

Andrew Curry

Objective/Aims

Reformer Marriage

Contribution of Proposed Research

How Martin Luther's twenty-first wedding anniversary had a big impact on the freedom to marry

Methodology

The first division of Rome and Germany

Resources

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/history/article/martin-luther-wife-protestant-reformation-500>