

Stan McNutt
LIN 653
Prof. Freeman

Bookwork 10

2. sent separately in email

4.

B. I not understand. requires the verb “do” before “not” to complete the verb phrase.

C. Seth is very unpatient. uses an incorrect prefix in “unpatient” and should be “impatient”.

D. I didn't do nothing. incorrectly utilizes a double negative and should be changed to “I didn't do anything” or “I did nothing” to correctly communicate their meaning.

5. The first sentence uses “not” to describe the possibility of their trying. The second sentence uses “not” to describe the possibility that they did not try.