

Overall Goal: Develop Co-Parenting plan for Family Court

Clients: Karla and John K. Family (divorced)

Worker: Nikole Ordman

Week #1, May 20

Achievement	Task #1: Develop Discipline Plan	Task #2: Develop Child Care Time-Schedule	Task #3: Plan responsibility for Children Health Care
No Progress (0)	Parents did not address the task	Parents did not address the task	Parents did not address the task ✓
Minimally Achieved (1)	Parents began general discussion of discipline issues ✓	Discussion of differences between prior court plan and current preferred plans ✓	General discussion of issues related responsibilities for appointments and payment
Partially Achieved (2)	Each parent prepared a written statement of points of agreement/disagreement	Identification of issues for each parent related to preferred plans	Each parent presents a proposal for appointment/payment responsibility
Substantially Achieved (3)	Identification of possible compromises to address disagreements	Discussion of possible compromises and implications for the children	Discussion of possible compromises/solutions
Completely Achieved (4)	Agreement on a plan to present to Family Court	Agreement on a plan to present to Family Court	Agreement on a plan to present to Family Court
Change Score	1	1	0
Possible Change	4	4	4
% of Possible Change Achieved	25	25	0
Percent of Change for all Three Tasks: (2 change steps of possible 12)= 16.7%

Source: Adapted and modified from evaluation conducted by Nikole Ordway, Colorado State University

Figure 14.4

Task Achievement Scale (TAS) for K. Family Co-Parenting Plan