Who am I?

A question so incredible, a question up high, a question that intrigues you and makes your mind fly.

A question that in the answer no everyone qualifies because the answer is not one but many about who I am.

I am Nehemias Brown, and San Andres, islands Colombia is my hometown, but the answer is wrong because they are asking who I am and not where I come from.

So, I start thinking deep and try to fly to the sky in my mind because my who am I have to be also defined with what I like.

So, what do I like? I like to read, I like the blue like the ocean and sky, I like to explore, I like the outdoor, I like to animals escuchar, I like to smile and people impactor, and I like to think that this is part of what I like defines a little bit about who am I?

My ethnicity I won't hide, because Latino I am inside, loving the people, loving to smile, loving to share what I got inside;

My Jesus Christ who satisficed my whole inside clean out and he open my eyes and gave me hope through his sacrifice.
