

Steven Hinspeter

Dr. Jeffrey Garcia

BIB337

14 February 2022

Let go on a journey to dig a little deeper and see what Jesus meant in Luke 10: 17-24. Jesus informed the disciples don't rejoice for the spirits submitted to you but rejoice that your name is written in the book of Heaven. Interestingly, it's better to never die than to have Authority over spirits.

What things were hidden? Why did God have to hide things from the learned and wise? Instead he revealed it to babes, infants, little children, and ordinary people. One would think the wise would understand and will do better with the information than babs. When you know too much you may forget that all knowledge comes from God. Not from your own doing.

Also who was Jesus talking about when He said Kings and prophets. Every King and prophet or just some. What did they all wanted to see and hear but didn't. Why didn't they get to see it? Was Jesus talking about the Messiah and the teaching of the Messiah? Or the spirits submitting to humans. Or some other unknown information.

We must go behind Jesus' words to see his meaning. He doesn't really make things clear. we must spend time with him to understand what he means. Then we must find a way to apply it. Everything Jesus says is meant for us to apply it to our lives. To help us become better Christians, disciples, and children of God.