

Eraissa Lora

LIN 653

Chapter 5 Exercises:

Exercise 1:

1. SUBJ (Her (det) favorite thing about going downtown is making a (det) pit stop at her (det) favorite restaurant (adjective phrase),) / [even if it's by herself.] PRED

Exercise 4

- A. My name is Alison (SOV= unmarked). Alison is my name (SVO= unmarked).
- B. Coffee I drink, but tea, I don't (OSV= marked). I drink coffee, but I don't drink tea (SVO= unmarked).
 - a. This marked sentence changes the tone of the sentence. The subject is making an emphasis/clearing up that he or she definitely does not drink tea and only drinks coffee.
- C. I live in a yellow house (SVO= unmarked). I live in a house yellow like the sound (SVO= unmarked).

Chapter 6

Exercise 1:

Past progressive aspect [I was worried I was not going to (pm) be able to buy (pm) a lightstick for the ATEEZ concert. Until I found a merchandise line and bought one before the concert started (adverb clause).]

Exercise 3

- a. PrepP in NP: He was so full of himself.

- b. PrepP in AP: Fond of small objects.
- c. PrepP in ADVL: Go grocery shopping tomorrow.
- d. PrepP in VP: In the shower.
- e. PrepP in object predicate: Leave the package in front of the door.