FIELD STUDY AGREEMENT

General Ministry Areas (available or of interest to the intern) (e.g., youth-group, cell-groups, etc.):

Please also indicate the percentage of time that the Intern will spend in each Area.

I will spend 25% in each area.

Opportunities to Lead: As an Army officer, my responsibility is to lead Soldiers. Besides my job as a chaplain candidate, I want to also lead in the civilian side. I am looking forward for new tasks in my church. I love kids and maybe one day I will be a youth leader.

FIELD STUDY AGREEMENT

Opportunities to Participate: There is always opportunities to participate in one way or another.

Sometimes there is no vacancy in the position we are aiming to, but in time, in God's time, the door will be open for you to reach what God established for you since creation.

Opportunities to Observe: One way to learn is through observing. Observe is the action or process of observing something or someone carefully to gain information. Observing helps to find a better way to improve in many areas. I wish to do so.

INTERNSHIP COMMITMENTS

- We commit to regular and frequent mentoring meetings, and will not allow more than two weeks to pass between meetings.
- We will submit our respective required reports responsibly and on time.
- We will seek to resolve any conflicts gracefully, first with each other, before contacting the Office of Field Education at ATS.

Risk full of Faith of the Intern(a): Yesbelmari Figueroa

Risk full of Faith of the Intern and the Mentor: Chaplain Aisabokhae

Personal Goals (see Learning Pact Course SF503 or SF603):

- 1. Christ Centered Character. I feel like my prayer time should be more often.
- 2. Empowered ministry. My missionary ministry needs improvements. To be or stay in the comfort zone is good helpful.
- 3. Spiritual Leadership. I need to develop ways to correct others without me feeling bad.
- 4. Living healthy. I know that I am not perfect, but I feel that I have a wonderful and healthy life style.
- 5. Public Foundation. I need to improve public speaking. Sometimes I feel nervous or shy

Learning Goals: I would love to get to know more about Jesus. My goal is to teach in the same way to my Soldiers about God. The handbook will be an excellent tour for performing such ministry.

Skills Goals: My skills goals are to improve my public speaking and to be able to play good piano at the church.

Spiritual Goals (see Learning Covenant Course SF503 or SF603): I want to be a great spiritual leader. My testimony is the one that will speak about me, without me opening my mouth.

FIELD STUDY AGREEMENT

Intern and Mentor will discuss the following topics during Mentoring Sessions:

We will discuss the following topics, Christ Centered Character, Empowered ministry, Spiritual Leadership, Living healthy and Public Foundation. Also we will be discussing about the proper or best way in writing the handbook and guiding Soldiers.
