

Essay 3: Film

Choose one of the questions below. Write an MLA formatted essay [around 450-500 words or 2 double-spaced pages.] Unpack your answer and ensure that it is clearly written and correct. Add a Works Cited page with the citation information below. In your first paragraph include the title of the film in italics.

a) Discuss a theme that you noticed within the film 12 Angry Men. What does the director use to communicate his theme? For examples: dialogue, symbols, stage direction and choreography etc.? Support your answer with details from the film.

OR

b) Discuss the idea of an individual's influence. What characteristics and/or methods does Henry Fonda's character have/use that helps influence the other jury members? Support your answer with details from the film.

OR

c) Discuss your favorite character and why they are your favorite. Support your answer with details from the film.

OR

d) Discuss the similarities and/or differences you notice between modern court room drama shows and films and 12 Angry Men.

Work Cited

12 Angry Men. Dir. Sidney Lumet. Perf. Henry Fonda, Lee I. Cobb, and Martin Balsam. Orion-

Nova Productions. 1957.