

Adrian Amaro

Professor Nova

MUS349: Music Business II

January 19, 2023

Week 1 - 10 Point Response

This week we started off on a very high note and learned about After the Ball by Charles K. Harris. The song was first performed in 1892 and it continues to be an enormous success in today's world in its own precious way. The song is exactly what I imagined it to be as far as style and sound. The video did not have the greatest audio or visual but it definitely gave the correct feelings from the song to the audience. I believe that this was also the first piece of music to sell a million copies in a 12-month period. Very impressive song that has definitely left its mark for many more years to come and will continue to be used as an example throughout the music industry and music courses across the world.