civilized, picturesque, with big blue skies and wind blowing across one's face

I am from a place with big Redwood Trees

Trees so big it's as if they are reaching for the sky

I'm from a family centered in education and determination

From Nneka Umeh (Nnoka) and Andrew Umeh

I'm from a family who perceivers through hardships and gives 150% in both life and education

From you must go into the medical field and education is the key to success in America

I'm from a religion with a God who loves and accepts all. A religion that doesn't judge others and accepts everyone with open arms.

I'm from Oakland, California and the village Osina, Ideato North in Nigeria

I am from we have rice and stew at home and okra soup with eba on a cold day

From I came to American when I knew I was having a girl (me) to make sure she had a better life compared to the one I had in Nigeria. From a mother who came to America with two sons while pregnant by herself and established a family home all alone until her husband was able to rejoin many years later. From I started working at any job I could find to going to one of the best nursing school in the US with four kids and becoming a Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner.
