

1. Descriptor of your spirit: When you take the best of your human spirit and the Holy Spirit, What does that look like?

A descriptor of my Spirit (which is still a work in progress), is:

A Spirit which thirsts for the heart of God

When I take the best of my human spirit and the Holy Spirit, it looks like an unstoppable force with a laser-sharp focus to be the living example of the love of Jesus Christ.

2. Dream: What is the best of you that is to come? What's the best of what you've been given when it plays out?

The best of me that is to come is utter and complete obedience and submission to the Will of God which I believe is the call to Chaplaincy. Stepping out in faith and leaving a career that is safe and uncomfortable for a life of service and sacrifice for the Kingdom of God. The best of what I have been given when it plays out is bringing a large number of Soldiers to God and God to Soldiers. I would have a Ministry that would encourage and inspire female Soldiers of color to answer the call to Chaplaincy.

3. What are two things you'll implement in the next six months and how?

There are several things that I will implement in the next two months. Two things, in particular, are: Continue memorizing Scripture beyond the fifty that are required for this course. There is so much power in the Word of God and memorizing and meditating on Scripture will allow me to use them when I am counseling someone who is of the faith. Additionally, another thing I will implement is building up a network of both men and women of Christ who can pray with me and for me. I have already seeds of long-lasting friendships already planted during this brief course in addition to other courses I have taken at Alliance. Also, I will begin to pray for a Spiritual Mother or Mentor who can help develop me and walk alongside me on my road to Chaplaincy.
