Final

Descriptor of your spirit: When you take the best of your human spirit and the Holy Spirit, what does that look like?

If I think about my spirit, I can say it's similar to Caleb in the Bible. Caleb was a bit of a Maverick, and I am also an unorthodox and independent-minded person. I loved Joshua 14:12 when Caleb said now give me this hill country that the Lord promised me that day. You yourself heard then that the Anakites were there and their cities were large and fortified, but, the Lord helping me, I will drive them out just as he said. Caleb was never doubting about LORD's promise and followed God wholeheartedly. The character of Caleb may describe my spirit well.

Dream: What is the best of you that is to come? What's the best of what you've been given when it plays out?

The best of myself to come is a servant of God with unchanging faith. Regardless of any situation, my age, or ability, the belief in God's promise and vision given to me by the power of the Holy Spirit and following God's comment wholeheartedly will be the best gift given to me. I have a vision to establish a mission center in Manhattan that provides the space for worship services and Christian organizations. I believe it will come into reality someday, as Hebron has belonged to Caleb.

What are 2 things you'll implement in the next six months, and how?

1. I am starting intersensory prayer with fasting one day a week to restore my spiritual growth and sensibility in the Holy Spirit.
2. Start an internship in the church to serve the Kingdom of God. I was out of ministry for several years for personal reasons, but I felt I needed to start what I could for the Kingdom of God.
