

ENG 101
Introductory Questions
Professor Crawford Locke
1/23/23

Name: Isabella Ribeiro

1. State your name, major/intended major and where you are from.

I'm Isabella Ribeiro, my major is Business Administration and I'm an international student from Brazil.

2. What Kind of writer are you? How would you characterize your writing style?

I am in between "Inspired" and "Logical" writer. I used to write stories and poems when I was a child. In general, I'm creative but I follow argumentative logic, especially when I'm writing about Business and Finance.

3. How would you describe your reading life?

I used to read a lot until 15 years old. Now I'm reading required books for college and some finance and business books.

4. What was the last book you read? Was it out of duty, or simply for pleasure?

The last book that I choose to read was "Seja egoísta com sua carreira" by Luciano Santos (It is in Brazilian Portuguese). And I'm reading "The Fourfold Gospel" by Steven Gruzendorf because it's required in another class.

5. What do you hope to gain from the course?

I want to improve my English spelling and grammar. And also learn the North American way to use commas (,), it's confusing to me because I know the grammar rule in Portuguese, and I tend to use the same rule in English. But the rule is different in English, and it's not like spelling that I can use a dictionary or a translator to help me.
