Professor Crawford Locke
1/23/23

Name Angelica Hutchinson

1. State your name, major/intended major and where you are from.

My name is Angelica Hutchinson. My major is Bible Studies: Biblical Languages.
I am from Jamaica. Currently, I am residing in the Bronx.

2. What Kind of writer are you? How would you characterize your writing style?

I would describe myself as a descriptive writer. I intend to give my readers imagery whenever they read my stories. As I describe things to them, they will be able to visualize them. My writings usually leave readers on a cliffhanger, eager to see how the story turns out, what happened, and so forth.

3. How would you describe your reading life?

It is not consistent as I would like it to be. However, my reading life is not so bad either. I tend to read when my heart desires to want to learn. I dislike reading just to read; Would want to change that around to reading through the eyes of my heart and not my mind. I hate doing it as a chore. Though it depends on what I am reading, different books bring out, and different sides of my reading style.

4. What was the last book you read? Was it out of duty, or simply for pleasure?

Praying In The Holy Spirit: Secrets To Igniting And Sustaining A Lifestyle Of Effective Prayer- By David Diga Hernandez. As well as his other books, they have been the major books I have been reading, and I was ecstatic when I found out they were in the mail.

5. What do you hope to gain from the course?

To increase my knowledge, speech, and sentence; when it comes on to writing, my writing to improve and becomes professional to those who are reading. I desire to have my writing at a college-level writing style.
