My name is Konroy Williams. I am from the beautiful island of Jamaica. I am pursuing a bachelor's degree in Biology. For me Jesus is my Jehovah Jireh(My Provider), He is my sustainer, He is my doctor, He is my lawyer, He is my best friend, He is my daddy, He is my bridge over troubled water, He is my way maker, my miracle worker, my promise keeper, my light in the darkness, He is my everything. My dream is to one day own my business so that am able to help people to achieve their goals against all odds. By me owning my business, I would be able to help people get well both physically and spiritually. People who dream of going back to school and help to do so educationally, physically, and those who may have psychological problems, I would help them to become a better and at that same time try to inject Jesus Christ in way that it would violate their rights. The person that I admire is my mom. She is a woman that loves God with all her heart. She has instilled in me the things that are Godly. She taught me how to love without it being reciprocated. She is a loving mom, and she shows it daily without even saying it. She also, demonstrates good leadership qualities, and she has imparted that to me. She is a greater budgeter. She is very skillful with her hands. She is a giver. She taught me how to give without expecting the person with give back to me. She also instill in me to one day be a great father. She also instilled in me to stand up for what I believe in. I believe that my mother is the best mom in the world.
