

Christina Rose
Our America
01 January 2023
Professor Perez

Where You From Poem

I am from my mothers womb
Where love and joy comes from
I am from Brooklyn where violence is all over
I am from a jamaican culture where love is spread with tasty food
I am a rose with thorns , be careful how you treat me
From " watch your little sister and don't bring nobody over the house without permission
From the Mason family where we fight each other but still come together as one
I'm from " if nobody dont touch you don't touch them
I am from a family that prays
And believe Yahweh will make a way
I'm am from a family that have faith in Yahweh
I am from you grow and learn from your mistakes
I am from if i cannot Yahweh can
I am from hard times don't last but you will see it through
From with Yahweh by my side all things are possible through him that strengthen me
I am from whatever you put your mind to you can do it
I'm from overthinking about situation you can't handle leads to stress
I am from talking to Yahweh will make your life easy and closer to him
From frames on the wall symbols our love to cherish the memories we share
From baby pictures , til school pictures. To graduating picture, to family photos
I'm from " pick up a book and read to expand your brain and vocabulary"
From i just want to play and watch tv all day
I'm from get your education so you can be someone in life, you can't be "dunce"

