Hours This Week: 32.25 Total Hours: 120.75 / 360

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
Week of 1/30-2/5 Mentor meeting: 2 One on one meeting prep: 7.75 One on one meeting: 5 Hanging with students: 3 Freshman SG: 1.5 Prayer meeting attendance/observation: 1.5 Prayer meeting training: 1 Prayer walk invites and prep: 1 Greek IV research and prep: 2.5 NSF/Intern Training: 3 Area team meet: 1 Observe student leadership meeting: 2 Observe/participate Large Group: 1 Total hours for the week: 32.25	One on One meetings: Having an agenda is good for these but also being willing to be led by spirit is good but this makes me anxious. Being able to both listen to spirit and student and disgust next steps make me nervous. Leaning into God's timing and leaning into the quiet space/time is okay and good. Prayer meetings: See notes below from NSF training. New Staff Formation (NSF) training: Focused on prayer and leading prayer meetings. Nothing new that our chapter is not doing but little ideas on how to make an environment for the spirit to speak was good, focused/guided centering prayer is something I learned was good and will implement in our chapter prayer meetings Hanging with Students and Freshman SG: Sharing life with students is as simple as having lunch with them, being curious about their daily lives is part of building relationship that I missed out on last semester and was challenged by from NSF two weeks ago.

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) TOPICS OF DISCUSSION REFLECTIONS
Meeting on 1/30/2023 We talked thru the internship contract and talked about next steps on some of the goals and projects. These conversation are different then conversation with supervisor when I was in the army. I have worked with mentor for a few months now and I have learned that I need to be more forthcoming with what I need, training and support wise, then I did when I was in the army. This still surprises me.
