

Daniel Ingoldsby

Nyack Heritage

Prof. Nehlsen

09/02/2023

Personal Covenant

Dear God,

I come before you today to enter into a covenant with you. I acknowledge your love, grace, and mercy, and I am grateful for all that you have done in my life. I recognize that without you, I am nothing and can do nothing.

In this covenant, I commit to putting you first in my life. I will seek to love and serve you with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength. I will study your Word and seek to live it out in every aspect of my life. I will pray regularly, seeking your will and guidance.

I also commit to loving and serving others as myself. I will do my best to show your love and compassion to those around me and seek to bring glory to your name through my actions.

In return, I trust that you will be with me always, giving me strength and wisdom as I navigate this life. I believe you will provide for all my needs and use me to accomplish your purposes.

I acknowledge that I am not perfect and will surely stumble along the way. But I trust in your grace and forgiveness, and I know that through your strength, I can persevere.

Thank you, God, for entering into this covenant with me. I am excited to see what you will do in my life as I strive to live out this commitment.

Amen.