

What was the image of slavery before 1500?

It was a highly common occurrence all around the world, to the point where the slaves would even project their own identities.

What factors contributed to a new construction of slavery?

According to ancient rules, the Romans enslaved the Spanish and made it a common practice.

Why & how were American slave populations dehumanized?

They began to spread over the globe and were shortly to reach their peak.

Do you see remnants of this in 21st century America? Explain

No, I don't see any evidence of slavery in this day and age.