Homework 2 – A Solemn Covenant

A Solemn Covenant – The Dedication of Myself to God by A. B. Simpson

Rewrite

God almighty, who is Lord of all, you have made me and all things are made by you and for you. You are the God who sees and knows all things. Nothing is hidden from you. You have made me and know all of my inner thoughts. Let the words of my mouth and in my hearts be acceptable in your sight. You know everything about me, and you know my deepest hearts desires. I dedicate my life to you. I ask you to forgive me of all of my sins. No man stands righteous before. I acknowledge your righteous laws and ways for my life. I humbly bow before you and submit myself to you.

What is it about man that you are mindful of him? I thank you for your lovingkindness, toward me a sinful man. Thank you for Jesus, who you have made to be my mediator, and the bringer of the new covenant and the reason why I am able to come boldly to the throne of grace for myself. Even though I am merely human, thank you that when I am weak you are my strength. I thank you for my salvation, and all you have given me through the precious blood of Jesus.

I now declare myself to you, with all of heaven and earth as my witness, that I accept your covenant and your plan of salvation. I believe in your son, Jesus Christ and I accept all that salvation gives me. I thank you that I am now the righteousness of Christ, and I am sanctified. Thank you for calling me and bidding me to come to you. Forgive me of my rebellious ways and let it not be a hinderance to me. I yield myself to your will and your ways.

When you come again O Lord, remember this covenant I have entered in with you. Write my name in the Lamb book of Life. Help me during the time of temptation and when my humanness may cause me to fail. Help me to be strong Lord in your strength.

I enlist myself as a soldier of the Lord, a follower of Christ and I acknowledge Him as my King.

Place me where you want me to be. Let my life be for your glory. Give me what I need. Let things not rule over me that I may turn away from you. Let your will be done in my life, give me your holy spirit and protect me as I enjoy my salvation and let me find peace, happiness and your favor.

My solemn Covenant with the Lord

Thank you, Lord, for salvation. I rededicate my self to you as a woman of God. Let me never forget all the benefits that you have given me. Thank you for your grace and peace, for making me the righteousness in Christ, for giving me the mind of Christ and your precious Holy Spirit. Let my name forever be written in your Lamb's book of life. Let me forever proclaim your word. Let me never stop studying your word that I may have an answer as to why I believe to all who I encounter. Let your light shine through me. Let my life forever be in your will and under your direction. May my life and my children's life continuously give you the glory.
