Solemn Covenant

Re-written:

God you are everlasting, almighty and the ruler of the world. You created the world with everyone and everything in it. You are everywhere all the time; You see me and you know all my thoughts. You know what brought me to you at this time and today I come to you. I know my heart is deceitful. I am undeserving but I come before you to dedicate my life to you. I come to you as a sinner, lost and confused by my actions. I am ashamed of my past transgressions. The penalty of Adam's disobedience was death and I as his descendant have inherited this. I take accountability for the justness of your sentence, O Lord and I bow and submit before you.

How can you look at me Lord? Your kindness is truly everlasting. Lord you sent your only begotten son to be sacrificed so that I can have an everlasting life. Through Jesus, I have access to you by the holy spirit. Your word has told us that it is your will that all whom believe in you shall have eternal life and that Jesus will be risen again on the last day. You have given us a new promise and have sealed it with your blood.

I declare before God, before myself and before everyone and everything on earth that I accept the conditions of God's promise to me. These conditions are that I accept Jesus and personal savior and that he will rise again. My rebellious heart has been thawed out by the love of God and now I will use my love to praise God and give him all the glory for the rest of my life.

The day when the Lord comes with all the angels and saints on judgment day, I want to be on God's right hand and in heaven with him forever. I want to be his and his only forevermore. Lord, in the face of temptation, help me to never forget your promise. There is power in the name of Jesus, and in your name I have strength. You are the captain of my salvation and I shall be strong in the face of temptation.

I have made this promise with you O God, not for recognition or fame but for eternal life and I know that your word is true and shall never be broken. I am ready to receive all your blessings in great abundance. May a double portion of the holy spirit rest upon me so that I can spread God's word to others. Please clean my heart God and purify me so that I can be worthy of heaven.

I declare that I am a soldier for the cross and a follower of the Lamb. I have one King, even Jesus. Support and Strengthen me Lord and be mine forever.

I trust in you God to put me in whatever circumstances that you deem fit. What I desire for is neither poverty nor riches. I do not want to be poor and rely on sinning and stealing and I do not want to be rich and spoiled and forget the power of the Lord. Let thy will be done and I ask that God provide me with his holy spirit and protection at all times so that I may be infinitely happy in the favor of my God.

Erica's Solemn Covenant:

God I know I am a sinner and unworthy of your love. I come before you to ask for your forgiveness for my sins, both purposely and unknowingly. I desire to give my life to you and build a genuine, closer and long lasting relationship with you. Today I want to make a covenant with God to never stray from you and your word. I know that I will have good and bad days but I know that with God by my side, I can get through anything. Jeremiah 29:11 says “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.’”
