

A.B. Simpson Covenant:

Our everlasting and almighty God, ruler of the universe. The one who made this world and me. The one who is in every place, the one who sees me and knows each and every one of my thoughts. My deepest thoughts are known by you, and you know my reasoning for coming before you. I reach out to you. The one who searches all hearts, based on how I know my heart, I do not reach out to you due to any worldly reasoning. But my heart is deceitful and it is not trustworthy. You know that I have the desire to dedicate myself to you eternally. As a sinner lost and ruined due to my transgressions, as the worst of the worst. When I look back on who I was in the past, I begin to feel ashamed and confused. I am rude, ignorant, and viewed as a beast. The consequence of the disobedience of Adam was death, he disobeyed that law and brought upon himself that consequence. I as a descendent of Adam, have inherited this consequence. I recognize that the consequence is fair, and Lord, I bow before you submitting myself to you.

How could you look at me? Such a horrible person like me? Your kindness is infinite and everlasting. Lord, you gave up your son with a reasonable soul and through Him, the Godhead was united with the humility of our sins. He is the bridge between us and the spirit. Through Him, we are able to have access and come before you with boldness. Strengthen me, Lord. I approach you to make a pact with you for everlasting life. In the word, it says that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. We have a new pact that has been sealed by the blood of Jesus shed on the cross.

I accept this new covenant that God has brought before us. I believe in Jesus and accept salvation through Him. No matter what may come my way any rebellious or negative thoughts, I surrender it all to Him. Take me and use me for your glory.

Remember me Lord on judgment day. That I may go to heaven with you forever. Remember me Lord in the hours when the situations in my life get out of control. Sanctify me, Lord. Pour out your blessings upon me. I am a soldier of the cross, a follower of the lamb, I have one King, Jesus. Give me the strength and be mine forever. Have your will in my life. May your spirit and protection accompany me in my heart at all times. May I be indefinitely happy and be in favor before the eyes of my God.

My Own Covenant:

Father God, I come before you at this moment. I ask you to forgive me for all my sins. The sins that are in me and I am unaware of. Lord, forgive me. I ask that you purify and sanctify me each and every day. Lord, I thank you for who you are. I am unworthy of your mercy and love. I am unworthy of the kindness that you have placed upon me.

God, thank you for giving your one and only son for someone like me. I do not deserve what Jesus did on the cross. I do not deserve to be loved the way that I am, but in your precious mercy, you continue to bless me.

Lord, I ask that no matter the highs or the lows, I may always come before your presence and recognize that without you I am nothing. Allow me to feel how you are with me in every step of this path that you are taking me through. I have failed many times, but you are always there to lift me back up.

Don't forget about my God. Hold onto me, sustain me, and never let me go. Remember me father God in your second coming. I want to be with you in the Kingdom of Heaven surrounded by the angels that worship and bless your holy name.

I ask that you make me one with you. May your spirit and precious blood cover me everywhere my foot my touch. I surrender myself to you Father. Have your will over my life forever and ever, Amen.
