INTERNSHIP LEARNING GOALS

Make sure your goals are S.M.A.R.T: Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound!!!

Intern's Faith-Filled Risk: To go on a mission trip to Uganda for at least three months after I retire from my job.

Intern and Mentor's Faith-Filled Risk: To independently assess my own personal responses in visits and utilize these skillfully in my supportive work with patients. My mentor will provide spaces and activities for reflection and continued growth in utilizing my own personal vulnerability in a skillful way.

Personal Goals (see Learning Contract from SF503):

To get at least 8 hours of sleep starting this month
Improve my diet by eating healthier by the end of March
Include daily exercise in my routine by the end of February

Knowledge Goals:

To learn more about what it means to be a chaplain (the experience, the skills, etc.)
Study my bible regularly with the intent to apply it to chaplaincy work.
Learn more about what is required for me to become a certified chaplain by end of semester.
Read books to acquire more knowledge on leadership by the end of February.

Skills Goals:

I will improve my leadership skills by attending more leadership conferences by the next six months.
Improving my communication skills by the end of March:

- To be more open about my personal life and process with patients and colleagues/mentors.
- To improve listening skills, to be measured by reflections with mentor(s) and written verbatim assignments over time (recording supportive conversations with patients for reflection).

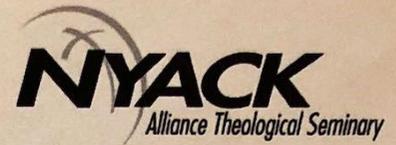

Work on improving my collaboration skills by the end of internship as measured by work on internship project working with different departments.

Spiritual Goals (see Learning Contract from SF503):

I will practice waking up earlier to spend more time in the presence of God starting this month.
I will practice spiritual disciplines of silence, prayer and meditation three days a week for three months.
I will fast once a week for six months.
