

JeanBaptiste Lamisere

TH605 NA History of Christianity

Professor Louis A. DeCaro

Dated 02/21/2023

QUESTIONS

1. What were the causes of the Roman Empire's decline?
2. Who did the Romans call Barbarians?
- 3 Who invaded Spain and crossed the strait of Gibraltar?
4. Who was famous for the first Christian missionaries from Ireland and the European continent?
5. What is the question Christological deals with?

Answers

1. The Roman Empire's decline was due to many causes, both internal and external
2. The Romans called the Germanic people Barbarians who lived beyond the Danube and the Rhine.
3. The Vandals invaded Spain and crossed the Strait of Gibraltar
4. Augustine of Canterbury was the most famous of them.
5. Christological deals with the question of how Jesus Christ, being one person, can also be divine and human.

TERMS

Visigoths: They are the Germanic people who settled in Spain and Established their capital in Toledo.

Byzantines: The Eastern Roman Empire, Whose Capital was Constantinople.

Papa: The name means both endearment and respect and applied to any bishop who deserved it, such as Cyprian in Carthage or Athanasius in Alexandria.

SUMMARY

The introductory chapter is on the Roman Empire, which had been divided into two central regions: the Western Empire, where Latin is spoken, and the Eastern Empire, where Greek is spoken. However, the invasion of the Barbarians did not affect all of Christendom in the same way. The Barbarians invade both internally and externally, including the city of Rome. The Germanic invasion brought chaos to the west, and there was an issue of Christology in Christian worship. After the rise of Islam, it threatened the church and conquered cities and important centers in the church's life.