I love music! In my mind, every music master deserves respect, but it is more worth it. It's Beethoven who has to be admired!

I respect Beethoven because of his noble qualities and selfless dedication! Everyone must know Beethoven's famous Moonlight Song! This classic is Bei Dove played for a poor and music-loving blind girl! And it won't be accepted-One point Money! This selfless spirit is worth learning from our contemporary people! This also fully reflects Beethoven's nothingThe spirit of private dedication!

I admire Beethoven because of his talent! I was impressed by Beethoven's talent! He has shown his musical talent since he was a child! Because of Beethoven's extraordinary talent and the engraving of tomorrow.

After hard work, his level is getting deeper and deeper, and even his teacher is ashamed. Beethoven was hired as a court piano and organ musician at the age of 12! In 1795, Bedo Finn held his first concert in Vienna, when he wrote and played it himself. Piano Concerto No. 2 impressed all the citizens of Vienna! All this shows that His superhuman talent and extraordinary talent!

I worship Beethoven because Beethoven is persevering and persevering. The spirit of never giving up to fate! Beethoven's hearing gradually declined in 1798, and his ears were deaf after 1828. At that time, it was the peak of Beethoven's music career. He was not overthrown by a cruel fate, and continues to create!

Beethoven's life was bumpy, had a miserable childhood, and was deaf in his later years, but he was still indomitable.

I have created many works handed down from generation to generation! His masterpieces are Heroes and Symphony of Destiny. Moonlight Song, etc! It is because of his indomitable spirit of not bowing to difficulties that I admire it.

Beethoven! An immortal name!

Beethoven in my mind is such selfless dedication, talent and perseverance.
