Essay#2 The Memoir Final Draft

What a beautiful ending Journey

A wonderful victimize woman who inspired many people. Her childhood was very chaotic, first of all she grew up without a father, and secondly she had an alcoholic mother who was abusing to her, she was living in the project, her mother was so messed up; it reached to a point that she had to quit school to take care of her siblings, but she never gave up. At the age of 16 she had gotten pregnant, the baby daddy took off, and after 9 month she gave birth to a healthy baby girl; and she named her Christina. Something about her that made everybody to like her.

After 4 -month finishing giving birth, to her baby girl; something great happened to her that changed her life forever. One day walking down the street not too far from where she lives. She met someone, and guess who that person was. A preacher, who introduced himself to her. While they were talking he even offer her financial help, after they finished talking he gave her his phone number and his address, and inviting her to his church, and the preacher turned out to be her biologicals' father whom she never knew, and what really interesting is that, the pastor did not know who that girl was, and the girl also did not know who he was either, but somehow there was a connection between these two.

At the age of 18 Something horrible had happened to her, her mother pass away; she never called the preacher, but she kept the piece of that paper to her safety box. One day she finally got in her senses and call the preacher, and she told him that she was going to stop the church, and the preacher was excited, he was looking forward to see her again.

One Sunday morning she dressed up herself and her siblings, and they went to the preacher church. Once she got there he introduced her to everybody, but there was a young girl she was 13 years old she could not stop staring at her. After the service the pastor drove her home, and the young girl ask her how he knew her. The pastor explained to her how, and she asked her daddy to inviting her over at their house, and the father say yes. The truth is going to come out that day.

The preacher called her and inviting her over to dinner, and she said yes. She noticed that the preacher never mentioned to her if he has a wife at the table she finally ask the preacher if he has a wife, and he said to her that she had a wife, but she died from giving birth, and he said to her ever since then he does not date anybody. He asked the young girl about her parents, and she explained to him her situation, but while she was talking she said something that got to the preacher attention, she said her mother name and the preacher told her that he was dating young girl like her, the young girl that he was dating called him one day, and told him that she was pregnant she took off he never heard from her. The preacher went to his bedroom and got a picture. The picture turned out to be her mother picture. She was crying, and the preacher apologized to her, and telling her, that was not his fault, he never gave up looking for her; he knew that one day they will meet. They were happy, and the preacher turned out to be a multi-millionaire.

All of her sufferings had vanished away, a father whom she never knew before came to her rescue. I always say that to people, sometime thing happened for a reason, and guess what, the young girl came back to school studying Psychology. She said that living with an alcoholic it is not easy specially if that person is your mother or your father, you still have to love them regardless. From her experience she points that out alcoholism is a sin, but not a disease, for this reason she wants to make a difference in people life.
