

HIS114: World Civilization II
LYNDELL O'HARA
Karinna Rocha

Conservative - the most successful and powerful ideologies early in the centuries that was controlled by an Conservative Monarchy.

Classical Liberalism - brings the Ideas of the Enlightenment, brings the idea of government should be more representative towards the people, where there exist men freedom and rights in laws.

Nationalism - collection of factors such as cultures, language which brings one big territory or country as one, where people can come together as one, or split apart.

Utopian Socialism - people working for the community goods, only take home only the needs and necessary. Where everyone is on the equal state

Romanticism - has the reaction of the Enlightenment where law being rational is not the only answer but also the emotional should be in one big scale as well.