

HIS 114 - CHAPTER 20

Film & Response

Conservatism - Conservatives wanted to re-establish hereditary monarchs, which provide stability to a country through rule of the government.

Classical Liberalism - The Liberalist thought more people needed to be involved with government through the voting process and allowing more people to vote. Liberalist were also for well as the people having freedom.

Nationalism - Nationalist identified with their nation, the language, culture and its history. Nationalism either brings people together or causes divisions amongst nations with multiple ethnicities within it.

Utopian Socialism - Are small groups of people working together for the greater good of the community.

Romanticism - Emotions are important in experiencing the world and is expressed through every aspect of living.