

ENG 102 Research Source Critical Evaluation Form

Jaci Hernandez
3/1/23
3/2/23

Source #: 1

MLA or APA Citation: Health + Social Costs of Unemployment: Research + Policy Considerations

By: Ramsay Liem + Paula Rayman

Critical Evaluation Criteria	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Comments
Relevance: the information's level of importance to a particular reading purpose or explicitly stated need for that information	✓	This source explains and goes in detail explaining the health + social costs of unemployment.
Accuracy: the extent to which information contains factual and updated details that can be verified by consulting alternative and/or primary sources	✓	It gives facts and evidence from both present + past.
Bias/Perspective: the position or slant toward which an author shapes information	✓	none that I saw
Reliability: the information's level of trustworthiness based on information about the author and the publishing body	✓	both authors went to good schools + it appears to be a reliable source that I can use for my research.

Notes/Comments/Questions
How does this source help to answer a question associated with your research?

This source shows diversity and stats which allows me to give better and more accurate research to write about.

Key quote(s) from source with page/paragraph number(s):

"One important aspect of this problem is to grasp fully the seriousness of the impact of unemployment on the worker and the wider population." (8)

ENG 102 Research Source Critical Evaluation Form

Jaci Hernandez
3/2/23

Source #: 2

MLA or APA Citation: Consequences of Long-Term Unemployment
By: Austin Nichols, Josh Mitchell, Stephen Lindner

Critical Evaluation Criteria	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Comments
Relevance: the information's level of importance to a particular reading purpose or explicitly stated need for that information	✓	Helps with my research and helps me with developing different themes.
Accuracy: the extent to which information contains factual and updated details that can be verified by consulting alternative and/or primary sources	✓	Gave multiple topics and lots of information to back each one up.
Bias/Perspective: the position or slant toward which an author shapes information	✓	none that I saw or recognized.
Reliability: the information's level of trustworthiness based on information about the author and the publishing body	✓	gave a lot of references

Notes/Comments/Questions
How does this source help to answer a question associated with your research?

This will help me with answering my question of how to get out of unemployment and its effects if you don't.

Key quote(s) from source with page/paragraph number(s):

"The extensive evidence on far-reaching negative consequences of job loss is clear: Loss of a job can lead to losses of income in the short run, permanently lower wages, and result in more mental and physical health and higher mortality rates." (15)