

First, if you have not yet watched the short film for this week, it would be wise to watch it before completing this assignment! The "Frame it Yourself" for this lesson is on page 639. It centers on the concept of Nationalism which was prevalent in this era.

In this week's Research and Writing, you will choose one of the movements mentioned (Italy, Ireland, Poland or Germany), research more fully the 19th century nationalist movement in that nation and then describe in your one page essay the ideals this movement embraced - in other words, what did it mean to be Italian or Irish or Polish or German at this time? Remember to include citations for the source(s) you consult in research.

For them being around at this time it meant the change they had to go through. Around this time democracy was starting to slow down meaning that they were most likely feeling like their freedom was lessening. I couldn't imagine the United States changing huge laws in the current day. It would make me hate the U.S and make me feel unsafe. Around this time a whole lot was changing.
