Week # 7 Hours This Week: 27 Total Hours: 182 and 25 min / 360

HOURS SPENT / TASKS & ACTIVITIES	REFLECTIONS JOURNALING THOUGHTS PROCESSING
Organization of our new office: 4 Hours	I gladly took it upon myself to clean and organize the new office we were granted.
Palliative care patient taken off life support.	This had to be the worst and best case this week. It was one of the patients who has underestimated the doctors three other times in her life. Unfortunately, this time was different. The family gathered around the bed and held hands. Father had us hold our hands high and say a prayer of forgiveness and then went around the room and have the family members speak kind words over her. There were lots of tears and sadness but also some laughs. They then gathered around and took their beloved family member off the support. I do not know how much longer she lived, but I am sure she loved the world and the stories the family shared were inspirational and empowering.
Continue to improve on my daily logs and balance my time wisely.	My logs are becoming stronger week by week. I cannot believe I am half way through my program now. As the weeks continue on, I want to improve and do well as a Chaplain.

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) || TOPICS OF DISCUSSION || REFLECTIONS

This week was a nice meeting, being thanked for all my hard work on transporting Bibles to our new office. I felt like a work horse this week but definitely lost some un wanted pounds. My meeting with Father, are always a blessing. Our daily huddles are good too and we are able to discuss our daily numbers.
